When We All Pull Together

I believe the Lord is working and moving in our Church. There is also an excitement that is building. This kind of thing happens when the Holy Spirit works among us. We build one another up in the Lord and encourage one another in our Christian life.

Hebrews 10:23-25 inspires us with these words: “Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful; and let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, but encouraging one another, and all the more as we see the day drawing near.”

Paul is telling us that the essence of Christian fellowship is one of mutual encouragement and exhortation in the Lord. Filled with the Holy Spirit, who is our helper and enabler, we do these things in a spirit of love and joy! The result is a dynamically vibrant congregation where all are leading active Christian lives and involved in ministry.

What an abundant life He has given us! Of course, the basis of all this is found in our confession of hope in Jesus Christ. He leads us in His victory procession. So, let us hold fast to this confession and pull together in prayer as we see that great Day drawing near!

Grace and Peace,

Bro. Mark
