“The Wonder Of It All”

This is a glorious and beautiful time of the year! Special services are held in communities everywhere. Efforts are made to respond to the needs of people faced with difficult circumstances; those who are hurting, lonely, etc. Groups compile lists to make sure no one is forgotten. Indeed, it is the time we are most sensitive to ways of reaching out.

What sparks all of this? Why do we do it? It's not like we're free from worries of our own. Whose idea is this anyway? Somebody tell me, please!

The “Story” has it that the whole idea originated in the heart of God. The “Story” goes back for a long, long time, but somehow it never grows old and must be retold over and over again. Indeed, it must be “The Greatest Story Ever Told,” or else it would've been forgotten by now. Of course, God is the reason it's not forgotten. He won't let us! By divine grace we're given a glimpse of what can be when people are touched and moved by compassion.

So, once again, we are in a time of preparation to experience “the wonder of it all.” It's called Advent. As we make ready for the Christ Child, God does His work of grace in us; hope is born and peace grows. No wonder we want to express goodwill to everyone! We're simply echoing what the angels sang on that first Christmas day, “Peace on earth and goodwill to all people!”

It's a contagious thing and once we have it, we're never quite the same again. I wish for you all the wonderful blessings of God as made known in His Son. May His coming be experienced anew in every heart!

Grace and Peace,

Bro. Mark
